

NO LAWYER THERE; SALOONS RUN CITY

Unique Distinction Attained by Douglas, Alaska, With 2,300 Population.

ALL WORK FOR THE TOWN

Fire Marshal and Police Chief in One, the Main Fac-torem.

In Queerest Douglas.

No bonds on city or school district.
No resident lawyer in the place.
Councilmen draw up their own ordinances.
Population principally of miners.
Land sold to city without condemnation proceedings or lawsuit.
Revenue of city derived from saloon licenses and municipal court.
Municipal natatorium now being built.
Fire marshal repairs park with hose.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 1.—Although a town of 2,300 population, Douglas, Alaska, has no resident lawyer, and is perhaps the only incorporated city in the United States that has no direct tax.
The councilmen draw up their own ordinances after a copy of those in force in Seattle. The saloon licenses are $1,500 a year, and it is from this and from the revenue of the municipal court that Douglas defrays its running expenses.

Town Is Orderly.

The town is orderly and peaceable and has a pay roll of 1,200 men who are employed at the Treadwell mines. There are no bonds on the town nor are there any on the school district. Douglas owns its own courthouse and its fire apparatus. It is now working on a municipal natatorium, which will soon be completed.

Every one in Douglas works for the interest of the town. When a new street was to be opened up the town made the people an offer for the land to be used and the people accepted. There was no lawsuit or condemnation proceedings, but a simple business transaction, as though private parties were buying and selling a piece of property.

Fire Marshal Factotum.

"Jack" McDonald, the fire marshal and chief of police, is the chief factotum in the town. He was formerly in Seattle, and was the second chief of the Seattle fire department.

If you want to know anything in Douglas, you invariably get the same answer, "Ask the marshal." If there is a hole in the baseball park, Marshal "Jack" McDonald gets in and repairs it by stitching part of a high knoll into the aperture. After about 500 yards of knoll have been moved in two days and the council asks the marshal what his plan is for the work he gets a statement from the water company of the water led out of the hydrant at 50 cents a day.

Everything works in harmony in the island city and every one is pleased to work for the good of the town.

Population Doubled.

Douglas has doubled its population in the last four years and among other things has improved its style of architecture from the modest cabin of the first settler to the residence of Sam Glus, which has just been completed at a cost of $5,000.

The present officers of Douglas are:
Mayor, William Stubbs; Councilmen, Joe Trudgen, J. A. Kemmis, Charles A.
Horn, Jerry Cashen, P. H. Fox and M.
J. O'Connor. Mr. O'Connor is also a member of the Republican central committee of Alaska. The other officers of Douglas are: Magistrate, Frank Gus, city clerk, John Hanson, and city marshal and chief of fire department, "Jack" F. McDonald.

LONG RED STREAMERS STRANGE LOVERS' SIGN

URBANA, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Henry Van-ness, of Hancock county, Illinois, stepped off the train here wearing a long streamer of red ribbon on his coat, and met Miss Annie A. Reams, of Wayne Township, who also wore a red ribbon. This was the first time the couple had met and the yagred to wear red ribbons in order that they would know each other. They proceeded to the courthouse, secured a license and were married.

LONDON GIRL WRESTLER CHALLENGES FOR $5,000

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Juno May, of London, twenty-two years old, aspires to be a wrestler. She weighs 252 pounds and is 6 feet 2 inches tall. Her best measures 50 inches, waist 33, biceps 14, and calf 15.
Wrestling has been her hobby since she was a young school girl. She is now training with Pietro, the terrible Greek. Juno says: "I have thrown in Greco-Roman wrestling all the women I have yet encountered, and am willing to challenge any woman in the world for $5,000."

Virtue Fed to Youths At Reformation Meals

Profane Pastry and Dis- obedient Cream Puffs Get Boys in Trouble.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Hail to the greatest of all reformers—Food.

Two hundred boys, labeled "corrigible" by the courts and their parents, are having virtue, morality, and everything that goes to the making of good citizens, fed into them out at the Parental school, where Superintendent Rufus M. Hitch, who has been making a study of the subject, says food is the greatest of all reformers.

The statement of Bishop Samuel Fal-lowa, who declared in a sermon that "virtue may be fed to a child," is supported by Superintendent Hitch, who says:

"Don't spank the child. Feed him right.
Is he a so-called incorrigible? Feed him cereals and fat meat.
Is he disobedient and profane? Cream puffs and bakery pastry are probably to blame."

Is he destructive of property, careless of dress? Feed him brown bread and forbidden candy.

On the menu at the parental school there are no sweets or pastry on the bill of fare.

There is neither tea nor coffee (except cereals).

The heaviest meal is in the middle of the day.

Bread, butter, milk, and vegetables

Babe Drunk in Court, Chicago's Spectacle

Unnatural Instincts of Mother, Who Forces Her Offspring to Partake of Intoxicants.
Scenes During Juvenile Session.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—One year old and drunk. That is the history of Baby Steele, child of Mrs. Emma Steele. The babe was in the juvenile court, presided over by Judge Mack, and at the bar stood Mrs. A. M. Smith, probation officer.

"What have you there?" said the judge.

"A baby, your honor. Its mother is unfit to take care of it. She drank herself, your honor, and when she drank she insisted the child should drink with her."

The spectators crowded close to see a baby that had received such treatment and lived. The judge was horrified. So were the spectators. It required just a moment for the judge to arrive at his decision. He commanded that the child receive medical attention and then be taken to some institution where it would be provided for.

Then came the pathetic story concerning Alice Heider, five months old. The little girl was wrapped in shawls and she cooed as the court determined what her future would be. The child's mother is in an insane asylum. Mrs. Frances Reid was the friend of the mother and when the latter lost her reason she took the child. When she appeared before Judge Mack she wanted to take the child as her own.

"Has the mother a chance of becoming sane?" queried the judge.

"She has," answered Mrs. Reid.

"Then it would be cruel to take her child from her. If she regained her reason and returned home and discovered the law had given her child to another she would again become insane. No, I can't give you legal possession of the infant."

Mrs. Reid was still the faithful friend.
When she departed she carried the infant and she said she would take care of it until the mother returned from the asylum for the insane.

SUBTREASURY TELLERS

NOW CAGED IN GLASS

Precaution Taken in St. Louis Against Theft From Outside.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—Opaque glass set in frames, is being placed over the wire screens of the tellers' cages in the United States subtreasury. This is to be done, it is said, upon recommendation of Assistant United States Treasurer Bantz, who believes it will obviate in great measure the possibility of a sneak thief using a wire or other means to get hold of bundles of money when the teller's back is turned.

It is not known whether Mr. Bantz entertains the belief that the alleged shortage in the subtreasury might be accounted for in such manner. Since Mr. Aldins took charge, he has had the wire around the cages doubled, to give strength and to make the apertures smaller.

The books are being audited to discover the discrepancy of $61,200.

COLOR LINE DRAWN

AT VICKSBURG BARS

Mayor Griffith Hereafter to License
Only Those Declaring Race Preference.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Nov. 1.—At the city council meeting Mayor Griffith announced that hereafter when a man applied for a liquor license he intended asking him if he was going to sell to both whites and colored people. If the applicant answered in the affirmative, he would vote against issuing the license.

The proposition is a somewhat novel one, but it was generally applauded. If the aldermen adopt the idea, it means that in the near future there will be no such thing as a mixed saloon in Vicksburg.

Although the mayor did not explain his position on the matter, it is regarded as due to the fact that mixed saloons are frequently the source of race riots and tend toward social equality.

road to the store is the wisest.

Heat on Tobacco Improves it Like Roasting Improves Green Coffee. Heat Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste found in Schnapps Tobacco and Coffee

Three ways are used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely sun cured, air cured and flue cured.
The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured.

In flue curing the tobacco is taken from the fields and racked in barns especially built to retain heat and there subjected to a continuous high temperature, produced by the direct heat of flame heated flues, which brings out in the tobacco that stimulating taste and aroma that expert roasting develops in green coffee. These similar processes give to both tobacco and coffee the cheering and stimulating quality that popularizes their use.

The quality of tobacco depends much on the curing process and the kind of soil that produces it, as expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than tobacco grown in any other section of the United States and has a wholesome, stimulating, juicy, full tobacco taste that satisfies tobacco hunger. That's why chewers prefer Schnapps, because Schnapps cheers more than any other chewing tobacco, and that's why chewers of Schnapps pass the good thing along —one chewer makes other chewers, until the fact is established that there are more chewers and more pounds of tobacco chewed to the population in states where Schnapps tobacco is sold than there are in those states where Schnapps has not yet been offered to the trade.

A roc. plug of Schnapps is more economical than a much larger roc. plug of cheap tobacco. Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts. Strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

TIRED OF LIFE AWFUL SUFFERING

From Dreadful Pains From Wound on Foot—System All Run Down After Six Months' Agony—Not Able to Work—Completely Cured in Two Weeks

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Words cannot speak highly enough for the Cuticura Remedies. I am now seventy-two years of age. My system had been all run down. My blood was so bad that blood poisoning had set in. I had several doctors attending me, so finally I went to the hospital, where I was laid up for two months. My foot and ankle were almost beyond recognition. Dark blood flowed out of wounds in many places, and I was so disheartened that I thought surely my last chance was slowly leaving me. As the foot did not improve, you can readily imagine how I felt. I was simply disgusted and tired of life. I stood this pain, which was dreadful, for six months, and during this time I was not able to wear a shoe and not able to work."

"Some one spoke to me about Cuticura. The consequences were I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies of one of my friends who was a druggist, and the praise that I gave after the second application is beyond description; it seemed a miracle, for the Cuticura Remedies took effect immediately. I washed the foot with the Cuticura Soap before applying the Ointment and I took the Resolvent at the same time. After two weeks' treatment my foot was healed completely.

People who had seen my foot during my illness and who have seen it since my cure, can hardly believe their own eyes."
